

Two Year Warranty

The ReVue scrolling banner systems are covered by a two year warranty from the manufacturer. The unit will be repaired or replaced if product failure occurs within Two Years of purchase as a result of a manufacturing or material defect. The manufacturer will determine if the product will be replaced or repaired. Damage as a result of improper use or transport will not be covered.

This warranty is void if the motor has been running for 12 or more continuous hours.

Coverage excludes shipping charges both to and from the manufacturer.
